Election/Restrictions

Applicant has elected the species for the group of claims 59-71. Applicant has further added additional claims which the examiner does not agree with applicant are readable on the selected species. The species claims 59-71 selected by Applicant read on a game system that comprises a video game apparatus. The newly added claims are drawn to species {embodiments} for a video game system with storage locations; methods of operating a video game system; a video game system with a disk reader; and a portable data storage device for controlling the operation of first and second game systems. Therefore, claims 208-280²⁷⁷, which are drawn to a distinct species than ad 3/31/05 that of claims 59-71 have not been examined and have been withdrawn from further consideration.

This restriction has been made final. An action follows, directed to the elected species of claims 59-71.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 59-71 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fujimoto et al (6,238,291) or Miyamoto et al (6,132,315).

Art Unit: 3714

Regarding claims 59-71, Fujimoto or Miyamoto teaches the a game system with a game apparatus with a first processor; a first control device; portable game sytem; second processor and second manipulatable control device (Fujimoto-abstract; Fig. 1; Fig. 2; Miyamoto- abstract; Fig. 1; Fig. 2; Fig. 4; Fig. 5; Fig. 9).
